

Creative Ways to Fundraise Virtually

HOST A VIRTUAL GAME NIGHT

Challenge coworkers, friends, and family to a game of trivia or bingo. Use gaming apps like Houseparty or Skribbl. Make the entry fee a donation to your team.

AUCTIONS AND DRAWINGS

Hold an auction or drawing online. Ask local businesses, your company, or friends to donate items or experiences. Get creative with your prizes and offer vacation days or a Zoom lunch with the CEO or principal.

VIRTUAL ENTERTAINMENT

Ask your network to share their talents on a virtual talent show or karaoke night. Not the performing type? Recruit a local musician, comedian, or magician to put on a show for your team.

HOST AN ONLINE CLASS

Host a fitness, cooking, art, or skills class via Zoom, Teams, etc. Get creative! Ask your organization's accountant to hold a tax seminar or your school's art teacher to host a paint night.

Your favorite fundraising ideas with a virtual twist!

YOU USED TO DO THIS:	MAKE IT VIRTUAL:
Dress Down Days	Virtual spirit week! Make each day a different theme and dress up for your Zoom meetings.
Hot Dog Lunch	Virtual potluck. Schedule a day to have a group lunch via Zoom. Anyone who donates a certain amount could be sent lunch via DoorDash, GrubHub, etc. or snacks through the mail!
Penny Wars	Did you know that the Jimmy Fund has a partnership with Coinstar? Visit your local Stop and Shop's Coinstar kiosk, select "donate to charity," then select the Jimmy Fund! Mail us the Coinstar receipt and we will add the total to your Rally page. Encourage your donors to do the same.
Bake Sale	Drop baked goods off curbside or take orders now and deliver them later.
Happy Hour	Organize a "Zoom Happy Hour" and ask for donations. Perhaps a virtual beer or wine tasting!
Viewing Party	Use technology like Netflix Party to have a remote movie night with your team. Pick out some baseball themed favorites to get you ready for the 2021 season.
