2023 YEAR IN REVIEW

PRESENTED BY

DEFYING CANCER WITH EVERY SWING

WELCOME

Dear Jimmy Fund Golf Supporters,

Another golf season has passed, and I remain so immensely proud of our community of golfers who took to courses all over New England and across the country this year on behalf of Jimmy Fund Golf presented by Mohegan Sun. Whether you joined us as a longtime tournament director, a new event organizer, or a proud event supporter, you were an integral part in helping to raise more than $6.8 million for lifesaving cancer research and care at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute.

I am particularly proud this year, as the Jimmy Fund reached a special milestone—the 75th anniversary of the Jimmy Fund itself. While it has grown considerably since its inception in 1948, the Jimmy Fund has always remained a community: a grassroots movement of people of all ages and backgrounds who organize runs, walks, bike rides, and—of course—golf tournaments, to bring people together and raise money for cancer research and care at Dana-Farber. Whether you've been with us for a decade or a season, your hard work and dedication on and off the course has played a direct role in preventing, treating, and defying cancer.

As President and CEO of the Boston Red Sox for many years, and Chairman of the Jimmy Fund since 2016, I've long been aware of how passionate this community is. I've also seen the power it holds from both sides: as a supporter and participant, and as a patient. For that reason, I personally extend my gratitude to each and every one of you for your unwavering dedication to creating a world without cancer.

I thank you, also, on behalf of our doctors, scientists, researchers, caregivers, and, of course, our patients and families. What we've been able to accomplish together over 75 years for cancer research and care at Dana-Farber is nothing short of monumental. I'm honored to celebrate this milestone with our passionate, generous Jimmy Fund Golf community, and I can't wait to see what the future holds as we continue to defy cancer. Together, we're all Jimmy.

Sincerely,

Larry Lucchino,

Chairman, The Jimmy Fund | Trustee, Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
Chairman, Worcester Red Sox | President/CEO Emeritus, Boston Red Sox

THE PROOF IS IN THE PROGRESS

For 75 years, the Jimmy Fund community has helped Dana-Farber remain on the cutting edge of cancer care, ever since Dr. Sidney Farber first pioneered modern chemotherapy in 1947.

Take a look at how dollars raised by our community for more than seven decades have directly supported Dana-Farber's mission to defy cancer:

■ 1950s: The Jimmy Fund Building opens, representing a new era in cancer care. The building houses research labs and clinics in the same facility, establishing Dana-Farber's signature bench-to-bedside approach to treatment.

■ 1970s: Dana-Farber expands clinical care from just pediatric oncology to both pediatric and adult oncology. At the same time, Dana-Farber scientists develop more effective chemotherapy that raises cure rates for adult non-Hodgkin lymphoma from less than 15% to more than 60%.

■ 1980s: Thanks to breakthroughs in cancer drugs, better control of chemotherapy side effects, and the development of procedures to improve tolerance to chemotherapy and radiation, two out of every three children who enter the Jimmy Fund Clinic become cancer-free.

■ 1990s and 2000s: Dana-Farber scientists and researchers make major developments in cancer genetics, proving that a susceptibility to developing cancer can be passed down from one generation to the next. Genes are discovered that increase risks for common types of cancer, such as the MSH2 gene for colon cancer and the BRCA1 gene for breast cancer.

■ Today: Breakthroughs continue because of support from the Jimmy Fund community, leading to new and innovative cancer treatments, advancements in early detection and prevention, and space expansion and extension of Dana-Farber's reach across New England.

Capping off another incredible fundraising year, Expect Miracles Foundation leadership presented a check for $1 million to the scientific co-directors of the Robert and Renée Belfer Center for Applied Cancer Science at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. From left: Todd Moyer; Frank Strauss; Pasi Jänne, MD, PhD; David Barbie, MD; Margaret Flynn-Martin; and Frank Heavey.

The tournament committee and volunteers of the Store Development Jimmy Fund Golf Classic gathered on a beautiful September day before sending out golfers, whose generous support raised $500,000 for pediatric cancer research.

The tournament committee of the Bob Parsons Memorial led by Scott Goldberg (third from left) celebrated a record year, raising $400,000 for research in chronic lymphocytic leukemia, early detection in pancreatic cancer, and patient assistance, alongside Brian Wolpin, MD; Matt Davids, MD; and Deborah Toffler, MSW, LCSW.

TOP FUNDRAISING TOURNAMENTS

The DefinitiveCares golf committee gathered before the start of their annual event where more than 200 participants turned out to raise more than $310,000 for the Jimmy Fund, while simultaneously crossing $1 million in cumulative funds raised since their inception.

Glen McKenna of C&S Wholesale Grocers presented a check for $275,000 to Katherine Janeway, MD, MMSc. Through the C&S Charity Golf Outing/Tee Up for Kids®, C&S continues their longstanding support of pediatric cancer research.

The Svenson and Nielsen families gather to honor the memory of John Svenson each year through the John R. Svenson Classic. This year's event raised more than $234,000 for the Svenson Genomic Research Fund and the John R. Svenson Fellowship.

GOLF COMMUNITY HELPS TO USHER IN THE JIMMY FUND'S 75TH

2023 was another successful year for Jimmy Fund Golf presented by Mohegan Sun, with an array of dedicated tournament directors, sponsors, and supporters across the country raising more than $6.8 million from the fairways through over 140 events that helped the Dana-Farber Campaign fuel Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and the Jimmy Fund's lifesaving mission to defy cancer.

It was a particularly exciting time to be involved with the Jimmy Fund, as 2023 marked a momentous milestone: seventy-five years since the inception of the Jimmy Fund. The original "Jimmy"—a young boy with lymphoma whose name was changed to protect his privacy, and a patient of Dr. Sidney Farber—first shared his story through a 1948 radio broadcast from his hospital bed, raising money for a TV to watch his favorite baseball team, the Boston Braves, while in treatment. That broadcast ended up inspiring more than $200,000 in donations from across the country, and that generous community of donors is what became known fondly as the Jimmy Fund.

In the decades since, the generosity of millions all over the world has helped the Jimmy Fund directly support Dana-Farber's mission of turning groundbreaking research into lifesaving treatments. The funds raised through Jimmy Fund Golf have led to innovations in cancer therapies, clinical trials, research tools, survivorship programs, and compassionate care initiatives. Most importantly, they've provided the means to allow Dana-Farber to focus on providing expert, equitable care to children and adults, while also advancing the understanding, diagnosis, treatment, cure, and prevention of cancer and related diseases, benefitting both clinicians and patients around the world.

"Jimmy Fund Golf has been an essential part of the impact our larger Jimmy Fund community has had on cancer research and care at Dana-Farber over the last 75 years," says Suzanne Fountain, vice president of the Jimmy Fund. "The funds raised from the fairways have directly moved the needle closer to a world without cancer."

Jimmy Fund Golf extends its sincere gratitude to all golfers, sponsors, and volunteers for everything they have done and continue to do to create a more hopeful, cancer-free future. With each passing season, the golf community helps to save more lives and reduce the burden of cancer worldwide. Enjoy this look back on a memorable 2023 season!

It was a year to remember for the Bell & Hudson Putt-a-thon for the Jimmy Fund. The committee, led by Jim Phaneuf, celebrated surpassing the $1 million milestone in the 19th and final year of the event. Jim (far left) stood with committee members who sported T-shirts representing different years of this event.

Tournament Director Sandy Eskin (center) stood with the daughters of Einar Gustafson, the original "Jimmy," at the 22nd annual Jimmy Memorial Golf Tournament. The Jimmy Memorial has been raising funds in honor of "Jimmy" since 2000 and raised more than $123,000 this year.

The weather may have been rainy, but the C&W Services/Jimmy Fund Golf Classic stood strong, raising more than $96,000 for pediatric cancer research. Tournament Director Michael Dunn (second from left) and committee members have been fundraising for the Jimmy Fund through golf for the past 23 years.

Members of the Basile family, led by Tournament Director Christine Lynch (far right), didn't let a downpour dampen their determination to raise a record $165,000 for the Jimmy Fund through the 33rd iteration of the Basile Family Memorial Golf Tournament.

Under the leadership of Larry and Chris Rybacki, the Rybacki Memorial Invitational celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2023. Despite rainy weather, the tournament raised a record-breaking $166,000 this year to support research conducted by Lakshmi Nayak, MD.

The numbers "one" and "five" were special to the Tom Cosenzi "Driving for the Cure" Charity Golf Tournament this year. In their 15th year, Tournament Organizers and siblings Tommy and Carla Cosenzi led the charge to surpassing the $1.5 million cumulative fundraising milestone for brain cancer research under the direction of Patrick Wen, MD.

The Jimmy Fund Council of Berkshire County gathered to celebrate 40 years of the Paul Dowd Jimmy Fund Golf Classic. With Tournament Director Bob Tucker (eighth from the right) leading the charge, the council raised more than $40,000 for cancer care and research. Here's to 40 more years!

Committee members of the Dana-Farber Driving to a Cure Golf Classic gathered to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the tournament. Under the leadership of Co-Chairs Victor Chiang (far right) and Craig Maurer (not pictured), the event raised an impressive $114,000 for the Dana-Farber Fellowship Program.

Many celebrations were in order for multi-event Tournament Director Gerry Forget (center), as the Woonsocket Little League, Jim Carr Memorial Golf Tournament and the Jason Forget Memorial Jimmy Fund Golf Tournament reached their 30th and 10th anniversaries, respectively.

Nick and Sarah Bascle (pictured) welcomed family and friends for a great day of golf at Sky Meadow Country Club. In its second year, Links For Liam more than doubled their inaugural fundraising, raising nearly $126,000 for pediatric brain cancer research in memory of their son, Liam.

Tournament Organizers John Simourian, Ed Fitzgerald, and Tom Jacob led the charge for this year's Women's Cancers Classic. The event focuses its fundraising on early detection in women's cancers under the direction of Ursula Matulonis, MD.

A full crew turned out for the Making Gray Matter Golf Classic in New Jersey as the event expanded to 27 holes and raised $175,000 for early detection brain cancer research under Rameen Beroukhim, MD, PhD.

Supporters of The CamBam Open celebrated another incredible event with Tournament Directors Joe and Val Conley, and their son, Cam (pictured second, third, and fourth from the left). The event raises funds for the leukemia research of Lewis Silverman, MD, and the Pediatric Activity Program, to support the same treatment and care that Cam received.

Committee members of the Friends of Jay Dion Memorial Golf Classic celebrated another spectacular day out on the golf course to honor the life of Jay Dion, and to raise critical funds for NUT carcinoma research. In its 6th year, the tournament raised more than $41,000.

The Swing Fore Pink golf tournament raised a record-breaking $125,000 in support of breast cancer research and care. Golfers enjoyed a beautiful day on the golf course while wearing their best pink.

Tournament Director Dave Worden celebrated raising more than $53,000 to support the melanoma research of Patrick Ott, MD, PhD, at the fourth annual Dave Worden Classic.

The committee for the VHB Jimmy Fund Golf Tournament, led by event organizers Matt Kealey and Sarah Ebaugh, celebrated in the sunshine after raising funds for critical cancer research and care at Dana-Farber.

THANK YOU TO OUR SUPPORTERS

The 5th annual Golfing for Gabi tournament raised nearly $78,000 for pediatric brain cancer research under the direction of Pratiti Bandopadhyay, PhD, MBBS. The Pellicani family (pictured) hosted golfers in memory of Gabi's life and the impact she made on so many.

Jimmy Suppelsa and Liz Pappas spearheaded this year's Hyannisport Jimmy Fund Classic. The event supports the Pediatric Experimental Therapeutics Program under the direction of Steve DuBois, MD, helping to find new treatments for our youngest patients in Dana-Farber's Jimmy Fund Clinic.

Thanks to another incredible turnout at the ALL Open this year, the 22nd annual event was able to raise $40,000 to support acute lymphoblastic leukemia research led by Stephen E. Sallan, MD.

Supported by local celebrities, Jayme Parker (middle) hosted the Applied Underwriters/Jimmy Fund Golf Tournament, raising funds for the Jimmy Fund Clinic's annual Spring Training trip.

The 39th annual Horseshoe Grille Golf Tournament raised more than $41,000 for cancer care and research. The Lee family has been raising funds for the Jimmy Fund for decades and looks forward to their 40th annual event in 2024!

Tournament Director Patrick Sullivan sent out his golfers at this year's JoAnne Sullivan Memorial Golf Tournament, which raises critical funds for breast cancer research.
